The Coalition Against Insurance Fraud has inducted eight new members into its Insurance Fraud Hall of Shame.

“The Hall of Shame annually dishonors the year's most brazen, vicious or plain klutzy convicted insurance criminals,” said the Coalition Against Insurance Fraud. “The Hall of Shame helps brand insurance fraud as a costly and socially deviant crime by detailing true-life cases, and the damage caused by these masters of disaster.” All were convicted or had other legal closure in the past year.
